BRIEF ABSTRACT OF LETTER.

Forwards an application from ~~Dr.~~ A.K. Pani, Health officer, Mysore City Municipality, for an advance of Rs 1800/- to meet the cost of motor conveyance (small bicycle-car) now used by him for his municipal inspection work in the Mysore City

NOTES AND ORDERS.

Papers under disposal.

Dr. A.K. Pani gives the following grounds for the advance asked for:-

Advances for purchase of motor cars or motor cycles are admissible under existing orders - Government Order No. 5026-71 dated 10th March 1913 - only to touring officers.

2. Officers whose jurisdiction does not extend beyond the limits of a City, are not considered as touring officers for this purpose, even though they may have a large amount of travelling to do within that area.

Flag K.

3. Accordingly, a few applications received from such officers had to be rejected by Government in the past.

Paper under disposal.

4. Mr. Pani, Health Officer, Mysore City, now applies for an advance to purchase a motor cycle. The Financial Secretary, while stating that such advances are inadmissible under existing rules, is of opinion that there is something to be said in favour of modifying the rules so as to make an advance admissible in the case of officers who have to move about constantly in a City.
